

ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF THE RESEARCH GROUP IN DIVERSITY

WHO WE ARE

We are a group of people members of an Advisory Committee.

Cristina, Àlex, Anna, Llorenç, Tània i Josep (2015)

WHAT WE DO

- We meet researchers at the University.
- We give ideas and some advice about several issues.
- We research on independent living and other topics.

WHY WE DO IT?

To share ideas and give some advice.

To talk about independent living.

To draw useful conclusions from the research.

To learn many things and to learn how to investigate.

SUMMARY OF OUR EXPERIENCE...

2012-2013

RESEARCH ON THE
TRANSITION TO ADULTHOOD
OF YOUNG PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES

- We were 10 advisors.
- We gave our opinion and discussed the difficulties and the supports we face during the transition to adulthood.
- We made some proposals to overcome difficulties.
- We developed a poster to explain what we had carried out.

2013-2014

TRAINING COURSE ABOUT EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

- We were 12 participants.
- We took some research lessons from different University teachers.
- We learnt how to do interviews, how to carry out focus groups and also the usage of drawings and photographs to obtain information.

2013-2015

RESEARCH ON THE INDEPENDENT LIFE OF
PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES

- We are 6 advisors.
- We discuss about different life models.
- We give our opinion about the supports and the barriers in the independent life.
- We have explained the work done in a summer course, through a poster and also through a video.
